THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

MERRIMACK, SS. SUPERIOR COURT

Docket No. 217-2003-EQ-00106

In the Matter of the Liquidation of The Home Insurance Company

LIQUIDATOR'S MOTION TO RE-ESTABLISH SERVICE LIST BY REQUIRING FILING OF NEW NOTICES OF APPEARANCE

David J. Bettencourt, New Hampshire Insurance Commissioner, in his capacity as Liquidator ("Liquidator") of The Home Insurance Company ("Home"), moves for an order terminating the existing service list and requiring counsel or any person who wishes to remain on the service list in this proceeding file to file a new notice of appearance. As reasons therefor, the Liquidator states:

1. This matter is a liquidation proceeding that has been ongoing since 2003.

2. Over the years, many counsel and other persons have filed appearances in the proceeding. Most of those appearances have not concerned the liquidation proceeding itself but instead have concerned individual motions or claims within the proceeding.

3. Such counsel and other persons have remained on the service list notwithstanding that the motion or claim that concerned them has been resolved. In certain instances, counsel or other persons have moved or retired and yet remain on the service list at their original address.

4. It is an unnecessary expenditure of time and resources for the Clerk and the participants to mail notices, orders or filings to such counsel or other persons. To the extent any person has a general interest in the proceeding, they may review filings, orders and other papers on the Liquidation Clerk's website, www.hicilclerk.org.

5. To address this problem, those who wish to continue to be on the service list and receive papers in hard copy should be required to file new notices of appearances.

6. This motion does not seek to prevent any person from being on the service list. It seeks to remove persons who are no longer interested in the proceeding and re-establish the service list so that it will only include those who wish to receive hard copies by mail.

WHEREFORE, the Liquidator requests that the Court enter an order in the form submitted herewith (1) terminating the existing service list and (2) requiring all counsel and other persons who wish to be on the service list to file a new notice of appearance with the Clerk.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID J. BETTENCOURT, NEW HAMPSHIRE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER, AS LIQUIDATOR OF THE HOME INSURANCE COMPANY,
